

1. Brainstorming & Idea Prioritization

Date	25 June 2026
Team ID	SWTID-2026-9775
Project Name	EduGenie – Google Gemini Powered Learning Assistant
Maximum Marks	3 Marks

Step 1: Brainstorm and Idea Listing

Each team member listed possible features for an AI-powered educational assistant, without judging feasibility at this stage.

S.No	Team Member	Idea / Suggestion	Category	Group No.
1	Naga Sri Vidhya Jillelamudi	Conversational AI chatbot that answers student questions directly (structured answer, explanation, example, key points)	Core Feature	1
2	Rajitha Annapureddy	Concept explainer that adapts explanation depth to simple / medium / advanced learner levels	Core Feature	1
3	Deepika Bai Banavath	Automatic MCQ quiz generator from any topic or pasted text, with explanations for each answer	Core Feature	1
4		Text / notes summarizer that produces short summaries, bullet points and keywords for quick revision	Core Feature	1
5	Naga Sri Vidhya Jillelamudi	Personalized learning roadmap generator with resources (book / course / practice) and a step-by-step plan	Core Feature	1
6	Rajitha Annapureddy	Local, offline-capable model (LaMini-Flan-T5) as a fallback so the app keeps working without an internet-dependent Gemini call	Reliability	2
7	Deepika Bai Banavath	A demo / mock-data mode so the app is fully explorable even before a Gemini API key is configured	Reliability	2
8		Lightweight JSON-file query/response logging (instead of a full DBMS) to keep the project self-contained for a demo	Data Persistence	3

Step 2: Idea Prioritization

Group No.	Final Idea	Feasibility	Importance	Priority Selected
1	A single multi-module AI study assistant — Chat / Explain / Quiz / Summarize / Recommend — built on FastAPI and Google Gemini	High	High	Yes
2	Dual-model resilience: cloud Gemini for quality + local LaMini-Flan-T5 / mock demo mode for offline or no-API-key resilience	Medium	High	Yes
3	Simple JSON flat-file persistence layer mapped to a relational-style schema (Users, Queries, Responses, Quizzes, Summaries, Learning Paths)	High	Medium	Yes
